

“All of the stories in this book are true. Maybe they are hard to believe. Many grown-ups have said that. But just for a while, for a few hours, try to see the world like a child sees the world. Open your heart. Listen to the amazing things in our wonderful world. When you love, it comes from a deep well, a place where things surprise you and make you wonder. Drink from that well of love and you will find you are no longer thirsty.”

Joseph Paul Ozawa

DR JOSEPH degrees from Southern California.

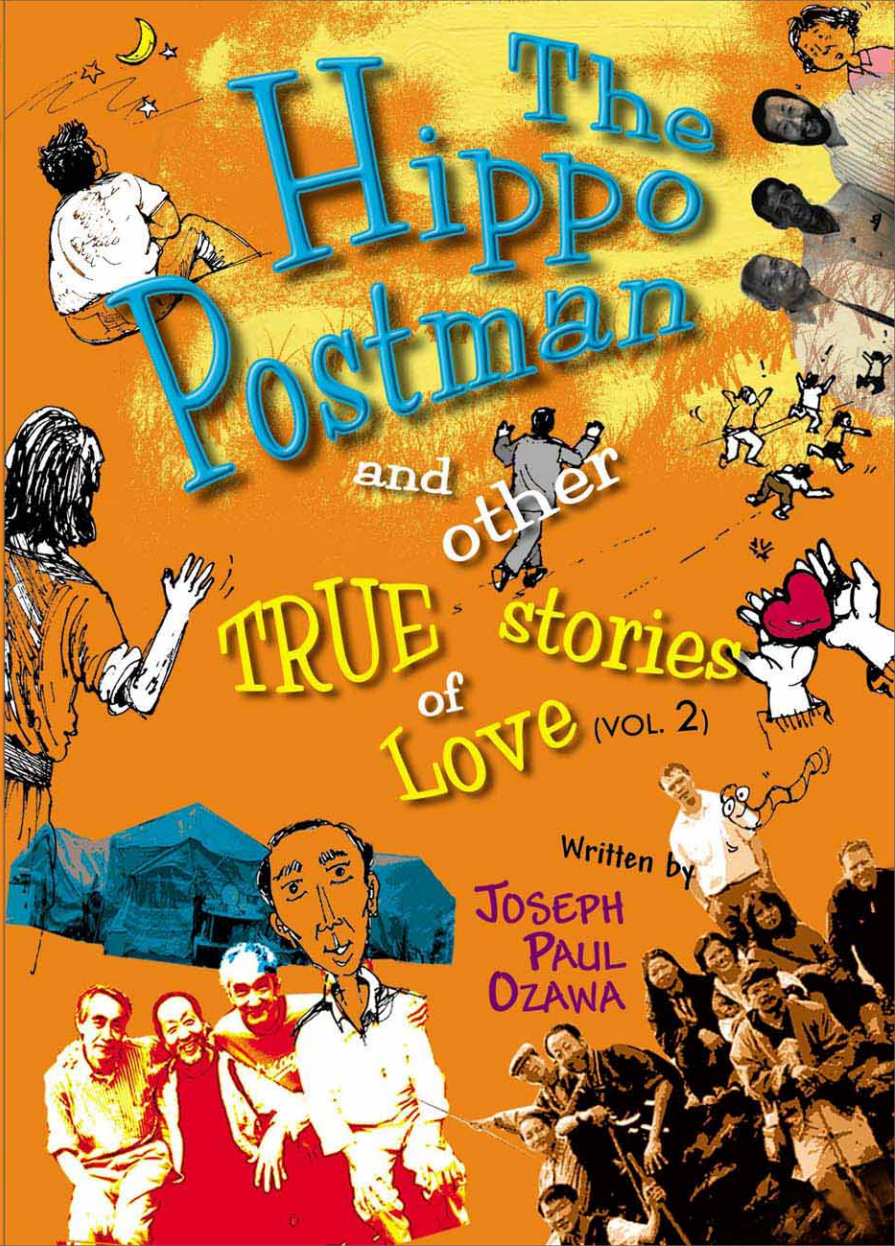

OZAWA is a clinical psychologist with A.B. and M.A.T. Harvard University and a Ph.D. from the University of Southern California. He has been in practice for over 25 years in many nations. Mainly, he has worked with the poor – with abused children and women, victims of violence, criminals, drug addicts, the homeless, divorced and the physically ill. For many years, he was a consultant to the government of Singapore at the Ministry of Community Development and the Subordinate Courts. Currently, Dr Ozawa has returned to Hawaii where he works with poor immigrants mostly from the Pacific islands, Southeast Asia and the Philippines. He joins with medical doctors to provide care to residents of public housing. Dr Ozawa is married and the father of three children, and as of the publication of this book, the grandfather of twins.

FIRST TOLD IN CENTRAL ASIA AND RUSSIA IN 1994, THESE STORIES HAVE SINCE BEEN PUBLISHED IN 5 LANGUAGES AND DISTRIBUTED IN 15 NATIONS. THEY HAVE ALSO BEEN MADE INTO A SUCCESSFUL TELEVISION SERIES IN JAPAN SHOWN TO MILLIONS OF VIEWERS.

The Hippo Postman and other TRUE stories of love JOSEPH PAUL OZAWA alby

The Hippo Postman

and other

TRUE stories of Love (VOL. 2)

Written by JOSEPH PAUL OZAWA